WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn are great ways to connect with Signal Financial. However, messages sent via Facebook, Twitter or LinkedIn are not secure. Here are some tips to keep your information safe:

- Do not post or send via Direct Message sensitive personal or financial information such as your Social Security number, account number, birthday, PIN or passwords.
- Less sensitive information such, as your name, address, and phone number should be shared only through a Direct Message via Twitter at SignalFCU.

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT TO US

Social media sites (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, etc.) are public forums. Remember that whatever you post or say will be viewed by others, and almost instantly. Do not post sensitive personal and financial information. Any information that you post on a social media site is subject to that specific site's Privacy Policy and Terms of Service. Signal Financial Federal Credit Union is not affiliated with any social media site, and we do not endorse links or other information from any social media site or its users.

Signal Financial will never ask you to send your account number via a social media site. We may ask you to send a Direct Message with your contact information.

OUR POLICY

These social media platforms are a place where members and potential members may feel comfortable sharing, connecting and learning more about Signal Financial Federal Credit Union. The mission of our credit union is to build trusted financial relationships through personalized service. The social purpose of credit unions is to help people.

Signal Financial FCU reserves the right to remove postings and ban the individuals posting if content posted is not productive, informative, respectful of diverse viewpoints or lawful.

Signal Financial Federal Credit Union's social media policy is that access may be terminated if users upload or make accessible infringing content.

All inappropriate content will be deleted from pages, including but not limited to: offensive language, links or photos, and derogatory/non-constructive comments.
